Subject: Action taken with regard to observations/recommendations in respect of case number 12474/1101/2020.

Respected Madam,

With reference to your observations/recommendations dated 18/2/2021 in the case number cited above, we wish to submit the following as Action Taken by the college:

1. With respect to Point 5.3 of the recommendation/observation, we would like to state that as per the guidelines of Indian Government Apps and Websites regarding both, Website Compliance and Mobile App compliance, Ram Lal Anand College has complied with almost all mandatory guidelines. While in some cases the work is under progress, few others have been kept for future action. The filled-in compliance matrix is attached herewith. Notwithstanding the attached compliance list, the college is willing to follow any future direction received from the honourable Court of Chief Commissioner for Persons with Disabilities.

2. We would also like to inform you that as per the earlier direction of the honourable court dated 4/3/2020 regarding Access Audit and making the college barrier free out of its own resources (pending release of funds by UGC), the college has got the Access Audit done by CPWD and after getting mandatory approval from the Governing Body, RLA College, work order has also been issued to the same organisation (attached). The work is likely to cost Rs 24,54,300 (Rupees twenty-four lakhs fifty-four thousand and three hundred only)

3. In addition, the college has taken the following measures to facilitate easy teaching-learning process for differently abled students:

- Laptops have been distributed for PWD students of 1st, 2nd and 3rd year
- Four Angel Players (in addition to the existing ones) have been purchased through for making e-books readable and audio recording of lectures etc. Two Angel players have already been issued to the PWD students

PWD students as well as faculty members have been asked to submit list of books to be converted into e-text with the help of Kobo Scanner. Few e-Books have also been sent to them.

- The SUGAM (Society dealing with issues of PWD students) have recommended various facilities for differently abled students such as- prepare Audio (with the help of NSS students) and e-Books, converting the books into Braille format (in coordination with AICB), organise a short-term course of Soft skill and personality building for the PWD students in coordination with NAB, prepare an internal map of the college and install Bluetooth notification chips
- The SUGAM committee also decided to hold a three-day cultural function of differently abled students
- It was also decided to frame a RPW policy with the help of external experts.
- The college also organised an orientation programme specially for first year PWD students on 12/1/2021
- The college also makes efforts to provide scribes for PWD students
- History department of the College is perhaps the first college to organise a certificate course in Disability Studies which commenced from 6/2/2021. More than 100 participants have joined the course. The idea behind the course is to sensitise the society at large on disability issues.

1. Gist of Complaint

Shri Jayant Singh Raghav, M-22, and Shri Mohan, M-29, both persons with 100% visual impairment and the students of Shri Ram Lal Anand College filed this complaint alleging that the Website of the respondent college has not been made accessible for persons with disabilities.

2. Submission made by Respondent

The respondent filed their reply dated 29.12.2020 and submitted that Ram Lal Anand College is among few colleges of Delhi University which has not only made special efforts to admit students with disabilities but has also endeavoured to fulfil the academic and other needs of such students. All the documents put on the college website are now readable by 'narrator' or 'OCR' software. Google maps are not readable due to technical limitations of the host website. The college website is accessible to all outside personages. The website is readable for visually impaired students. Certain pdf documents can be made readable through OCR software by the reader. This had been conveyed to the complainants by the EOC, Delhi University. The respondent also submitted that they would abide by the direction given to it by the Court of Chief Commissioner for Persons with Disabilities in future in this regard.

3. Submission made in Rejoinder:

The complainants filed rejoinder on 04.01.2021 and reiterated their complaint that all the documents put on the college website are still not readable by 'narrator' or 'OCR' software, as the website is still not up to the GIGW. Google Maps can be made readable after making the website complying with the "Guidelines for Indian Government Website". The college website is not accessible to all the persons with disabilities outside the college. The complainants demanded the respondent college to provide them with the subscription of the OCR's.

4. Hearing: The case was heard via Video Conferencing by Commissioner for Persons with Disabilities on 05.02.2021. The following were present:

- (1) Shri Jayant Singh Raghav; and Shri Mohan, complainants
- (2) Dr. Rakesh Kumar Gupta, Principal, Ram Lal Anand College, for the respondent

5. Observation/Recommendations:

Both the parties were heard.

5.2 Access to information and communication technology, Section 42 of the RPwD Act, provides as under:

"42. The appropriate Government shall take measures to ensure that, -

- (i) all contents available in audio, print and electronic media are in accessible format;
- (ii) persons with disabilities have access to electronic media by providing audio description, sign language interpretation and close captioning;
- (iii) electronic goods and equipment which are meant for every day use are available in universal design."

5.3 In view of the provision stipulated above, the respondent is advised to make the college website accessible and readable in all respects in the college and outside college for the persons with disabilities. It may be brought to the GIGW standards. Action taken by the respondent may be intimated to this Court in terms of Section 76 of the RPwD Act, 2016.

5.4 Accordingly the case is disposed off.
